CRIPPLE TELEGRAPH WIRES, RAID MEXICAN TOWNS IN BLOODY RAID.

KILL FORTY VICTIMS

Mexican Government Sends Troops and Volunteers Numbering 2,000
Order Will Be Restored.

Mexico City, Mex., June 8.—With telegraph wires cut and operators murdered or forced to flee for their lives, definite information is lacking as to the present situation at Valladolid, Yucatan, the scene of a bloody massacre by Indian insurgents several days ago. Meager advices received by the government authorities here today estimate the number of killed at forty.

More than 2,000 Indians are said to have been engaged in the attack upon the towns. The insurgents held Valladolid at last accounts, having freed themselves in the jail and other buildings. A force of federal and state troops and volunteers numbering more than 2,000 men was concentrating at Dzitas, a short distance from Valladolid, and was about to march upon the rebels.

Bravo Ordered to Scene.

Gen. Ignacio Bravo, commander of the tenth military zone, whose headquarters are at Santa Cruz de Bravo in the province of Quintana Roo, has been ordered to the scene and will take command.

Those engaged in the uprising are chiefly Indians of the towns of Xocen and Chichiuilla, who never have been submissive to authority. Reports as to the cause of the outbreak are conflicting. Some declare that it began with a protest against certain orders issued by the civil officer known as the "Tefe Politico" in charge of the municipality, while others say that it was the result of a drunken spree. Whatever its origin, it appears to have had some semblance of organization and is said to have been led by political malcontents. Col. Bonilla Montenegro, formerly at the head of the civil government of Valladolid, is said to have

Where First Attack Begun.

The first attack was made upon the building where all public offices are located. The mob was armed with machetes, pistols and guns. After sacking this building the rioters turned their attention to the Jefe Politico named Regil.

The battle had begun in the night and it was 2 a. m. when the attack was made on the building where Regil and many citizens had taken refuge. A bloody butchery followed. The wife of Regil left her four children and went to the assistance of her husband, seeking through her tears and prayers to reach the hearts of the infuriated raiders. Regil was cut down before her eyes and his body harked to pieces. The wife also is said to have been murdered as were all the men in the building, some twenty in all. Later the five or six gendarmes in the town met a similar fate.

People Terrified.

The people of the town were terrified. Many fled in the direction of Merida. The mob surged through the town crying for blood and pillage. Victor Ojeda, Judge of the First Instance, well into their hands and was assassinated. Other victims were Florentino Echarreta, commander of the police; Jose Marie Hernandez, second in command; Pedro Hernandez, mayor of the town; the treasurer and others.

Among others reported to have been killed is given the name of Jose E. Triay, chief of the telegraph office at Valladolid, and Alonso Villanueva and Demetrio Rivero, merchants, whose stores were also sacked.

It is said that Triay, chief of the telegraph office, was put to death after suffering horrible torture. Other operators fled to the country and escaped the mob.

At the war department here it was said that the troops already en route to the scene of the pillage with the local forces will be able to restore order, although additional troops were in readiness to be sent forward if it became necessary.

GRADUATING EXERCISES TONIGHT

Ada will see the "sweet girl graduates" at the height of her glory tonight, for the graduating exercises of the East Central Normal will be held at the M. E. church. Notwithstanding the fact that the Normal began under adverse circumstances and has been hampered by a good many difficulties not easily overcome—by dint of hard work, untiring efforts and hearty co-operation of students and faculty, school and town, the success of the institution has been phenomenal.

From tonight it will take its place among alma maters. Hon. M. L. Williams of Muskogee will address the graduates and Prof. Chas. W. Briles will present the diplomas. Those who have the honor of being first to receive diplomas from the East Central Normal are Orel Busby, Johnston T. Crawford, Carmer Dallas, Corinne Montague Hardin, Kate Louisa Robinson, Cora Robertson Perkins.

The program for Thursday evening, June 9, is as follows:

Little Boy Falls and Is Caught and Held by Nails That Stick in His Leg.

Clinton, Ok., June 8.—While climbing up a post on the front porch at his home yesterday afternoon, little Walter Motherway slipped and in falling struck two nails which protruded from a board. The nails cut into the flesh of the little fellow's leg to such a depth that he hung suspended in the air, while his shrieks of agony could be heard for blocks, frightening the neighbors. His sister, Gladys, happened to be near and ran to his assistance, pulling him loose from the rusty nails that held him.

The gashes in the boy's leg are two and four inches in length, and from one-half to three-fourths of an inch in depth. On account of the rusty condition of the nails the family entertains some fear that he will suffer from blood poison, although at present he is getting along nicely.

EMPLOYEES MUST BE ABLE TO VOTE

Oklahoma City, Ok., June 9.—"Every corporation, company, firm, superintendent, foreman, department head or any other person with jurisdiction over voters is hereby warned that unless on election day the men are given at least two hours in which to vote they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law which provides a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500, and corporation, firm or individual having under his supervision and employ voters, are warned that imprisonment may follow if complaints are made." This is the warning Chairman D. S. Levy of the county election board issued Wednesday and it will be carried out to the letter. The law is specific and voters are urged to report any violations of which they are cognizant.

CLINT WILL MEET ATTY. GEN. WEST

Hon. Clint Graham of Marietta, candidate for attorney general, a social and political favorite in Pontotoc county, will meet his opponent, Hon. Chas. West, the present incumbent, in joint debate in the latter's home town next Wednesday night. Since Mr. Graham goes into his opponent's home town, and presumably his stronghold for first joint debate, it would only be fair that he bring Gen. West to Ada, one Clint's numerous strongholds, for the concluding debate.

LAWTON SEES 1000 ELKS

Parade Headed by Fort Sill First Field Artillery Band.

Lawton, Ok., June 8.—Mounted as if in actual war, the First Field Artillery band of Fort Sill, a musical aggregation of thirty-five pieces known all over Oklahoma for their ability led the magnificent parade of three miles in length through Lawton streets today at 11 o'clock as the leading feature of the Elks' state meeting. Next in line of march was the full three batteries of the First Field Artillery, in command of Col. Andrews, bearing a full quota of cannons and ammunition wagons in army fashion.

Besides the Fort Sill and local bands, Shawnee and Hobart were in the parade with bands. Nearly 1,000 Elks were in the line of march from Muskogee, Ardmore, Hobart, Frederick, Elk City, McAlester, El Reno, Tulsa, Guthrie, Chickasha, Mangum and Oklahoma City and Lawton. Many decorated floats autos and carriages were in the procession. The Hobart delegation which came over today in cars, were present with thirteen autos.

TAFT APPOINTS NEGRO DESPITE SOUTHERN PROTESTS

Washington, June 7.—President Taft today nominated William D. Crum of South Carolina, minister resident and consul general at Monrovia, Liberia. Crum is the negro whose appointment by Mr. Roosevelt as collector of the port at Charleston, S. C., raised such a storm of protest in the south.

Miss Edinia Richardson, who attended the E. C. S. N. returned to her home in St. Louis this morning.

RECITAL LAST NIGHT

The recital at the High school building last night given by the Fine Arts Department of the East Central Normal showed a magnificent triumph in the Fine Arts by the students. The auditorium was filled to its utmost capacity and from the time the first number was presented the audience was ready to pronounce it the greatest success in the series of commencement exercises so far given. The music was superb, the costumes unique and historically correct, the readings, in fact, everything on the program reached the highest excellence and each number never once failed to bring its round of enthusiastic applause.

Madero Candidate for the Presidency of Mexico Under Arrest.

Monterey, Mex., June 8.—Without offering any defense Francisco I. Madero, candidate for the presidency of the republic, who was arrested Monday night, stood before Judge Trevino today and listened to the court declare him a "formal" prisoner. Subsequently he stated that he had refused the privilege of defense on the ground that he has no faith in justice at this time.

Judge Trevino gave as a reason for his action in holding Madero that the deposition of Madero justified him in ordering him held incommunicado.

The newspapers of this city are commenting freely upon the arrest and imprisonment of Madero, the opposition press condemning the action as the authorities and the government papers praising their activity in punishing what they insist is a grave offense.

Madero was arrested as he, with his wife, was boarding a train to leave the city. He was charged with having assisted or aided Rouque Estrada, a prominent anti-re-electionist to escape the service of a warrant for an offense which he is alleged to have committed last Sunday, the nature of which was not revealed. Estrada gave himself up yesterday to the authorities.

SULPHUR HAS TWO BIG DAYS

Tishomingo Is There With Her Band Boosting for Hon. W. H. Murray.

Sulphur, Ok., June 8.—Oklahoma City, Shawnee and Guthrie were represented here in joint debate today by E. J. Giddings, Fred Reilly and Horace Speed, respectively. Mr. Giddings took the position that the people of the state have the right to locate their state capital at any time, and Shawnee and Guthrie contended that the state was bound not to remove the capital until 1913.

The advantages of Oklahoma City for the capital were given in detail by Mr. Giddings. About 3,000 people were in attendance and it was a gala day for Sulphur. Gov. Haskell and state and county candidates will speak here tomorrow, including Ross Herring and advocates of Cruce and Murray and of other candidates. Tishomingo is here with her band, boosting for Bill Murray.

DISCUSSES "MATCH-UP" PROPOS-

CRITICISES CRUCE TACTICS

Mr. Murray Very Positive in Position on Grandfather Clause—Purchase of Coal Lands and Torrens Land System—Propounds
Some Questions to
Mr. Cruce.

Tishomingo, Okla., June 7, 1910.
Hon. Lee Cruce, Ardmore, Okla.

Dear Sir:—I have read your favorable of the 3rd inst., accepting my proposed "match-up" discussion between us and Judge J. B. A. Robertson and Col. L. P. Ross as the same appeared in your official organ, the Daily Oklahoman. I have received acceptance from the other gentlemen named.

You state that I have omitted
mentioning the Hon. F. E. Herring and "General" Brant Kirk as candidates for the same position. I omitted both because there is no evidence that either is a candidate for governor, but rather candidates for sloughing votes from some other candidate. I had information prior to the announcement of the said "General" Brant Kirk that your headquarters in the Lee hotel, directed by John R. Williams, the insurance agent, and John B. Doolin, the abstractor, had secured the services of
"General" Brant Kirk to run, and evidently that was why he singled me out of all the candidates for a bitter and scurrilous attack, and your letters seem to confirm this information. I have no desire to discuss matters concerning the governor's office with anyone except those running for governor, however, I shall agree to their going along if this be the condition of your acceptance.

You complain that I have fixed all conditions, but you accede to the same. You fail, however, to point out that any such conditions are unfair.
If your managers will point out the unfairness of them I shall be glad,
through my representatives, to modify them with a view to making them fair, with but one limitation; that is,
I shall not agree to any plan of physical combat or to answer in the heat of passion in any way having the semblance of dueling, and which you yourself have designated the "Kentucky plan." I want to strip this discussion both of fire, water and firearms.

You state that we differ on four questions, to-wit: The "Grandfather Clause," so-called, Taxation of Indian Lands, Torrens Land Registration System and the Wisdom of the State's purchasing the coal and asphalt lands. I assume that you know whereof you speak for the reason that there are no official records by which your own position can be ascertained, while you have the benefit of my official record, made under the sacred oath, as disclosed by the records of the constitutional convention and the first legislature. But for the purpose of disclosing my position to those who have not had access to the printed journals of the constitutional convention and the first legislature, I here state my position on each of the four questions named:

1st. As to the Torrens Land Registration System, your Muskogee speech, your revised version of your Holdenville declamation discloses that you are opposed to it and that you will veto it. Your opposition thereto is based upon the proposition that it will bankrupt the state, and then you instance the thirty thousand land suits in the federal courts.
In this you showed your ignorance in the operation of the law and the system. It will not bankrupt the state but it will bankrupt some of the Indian Territory gratters who have made up a lot of titles with a view of unloading upon some new comer
to our state desiring to buy a home, as it will declare these titles as belonging to the full-blood, from whom these gratters attempted by mental cunning to rob. Had the Torrens land system been in force from the beginning of state government the thirty thousand suits never would have appeared on the docket as the titles would have been manifest to every man. How can you bankrupt the state unless it may be sued, and where is the authority for an individual to sue
Amendment to U. S. constitution.

2. As to the taxing of Indian lands
I have to state that I was in the legislature that enacted the law that provided for the taxation of these lands. I have submitted in my Altus speech a certificate from the treasurer of Johnston county, Oklahoma, showing that I had paid all taxes upon the lands of myself, wife and children since statehood. The fact that I assisted in passing the law, coupled with the fact that I paid the tax, certainly ought to disclose my position thereon. The Indians have secured injunctions against a portion of this tax. This, in my opinion, leaves it solely with the courts of the country finally to determine, and both the Indians, the county and state governments will have to bow to that decision. But, my dear Mr.

Cruce, if the Indian tax should be an issue in this campaign, then let us also make an issue of the railroad and corporation tax, who have secured injunctions against one million, one hundred and seventy-four thousand dollars, or a sum total of four times as great as all that secured by the Indians. I hold the same policy with reference to both,
and that I should instruct the Attorney General to push them to a speedy conclusion in the interest of the state.

3rd. My position upon the coal and asphalt lands is that it is not an issue in this campaign for the reason that under the enabling act this as well as all other Indian property, must be disposed of by congress, and that congress, with the opposition of Busby and the other coal operators, with the senate made up as it is, will never permit the purchase of the coal lands by the state; and in view of the further fact that the purchase can not be made by the state, even with permission of congress, unless the same receives the sanction
of the people at a general election, as disclosed by Sec. 25, Art. 10, of the Oklahoma constitution, and also since the school money can not be used, as the method of loaning it is fixed under the constitution, (See Sec. 6, Art. 11), and no other funds can be used, since under the constitution again no bonds can be issued in excess of four hundred thousand dollars, except for the debts heretofore created, unless such bond issue shall also receive the sanction of a vote of the people, and, therefore, the governor's hands are tied.

I observe you state that if the coal lands were purchased that convict labor would be worked in the mines.
In this you are ignorant of the constitution, because in Sec. 2, Art. 23, of the constitution is found this clause prohibiting it, a clause that I supported and voted for in the constitutional convention, forever prohibiting the lease system or competition of convict labor with the honest labor of the state. If I had the power, I do not mind stating that I would provide for the purchase of the coal lands, provided both the mineral deposits and the surface can be purchased together, a position I held to in the constitutional convention and the first legislature, and I am sustained in this by the democratic party of Oklahoma in its platform adopted at Tulsa September, 12th, 1908, a convention in which you participated, and the chairman of the committee on platform was R. W.
Dick, a citizen of your town, and now your supporter. Why did you not then fight it? I wish to call your attention further that the Hon. W. A. Ledbetter was elected delegate to the constitutional convention from a district composed solely of the town of Ardmore upon a platform declaration declaring for the purchase of the coal and asphalt lands by the state, and I ask you if your brother, A. C.
Cruce, was not upon the platform committee that drafted the platform upon which Ledbetter ran? But if the coal is stripped of the surface by the federal government I should oppose the purchase of the deposits.
If the state had the surface it could
and ought to be sold, as disclosed in my speech accepting the speakership found in the journals of the House, to actual farmers, and could be confined to citizens of Oklahoma.
Whereas, if the federal government sells the surface no man in Oklahoma will scarcely have an opportunity to buy these lands for homes, but other citizens of the United States from other states would be permitted for the most part to buy this surface. I am interested not in the citizens of other states but in the citizenship of Oklahoma. If the Federal government does not choose thus to sell them to the state then I shall favor, as I have favored, the sale by any other method both of the sur-
well as all other Indian property, to the end that the Indian question may be settled, and that the federal government may take its hand of carpetbaggism out of the state. And, as stated by me last winter, I have long since given up all hope of the
property, because the desires and wishes of the coal operators themselves will receive the first sanction
at the hand of the Federal administration, and therefore I shall make no more effort, whether as governor or as a private citizen, to purchase this property, as it would be futile, and there are too many other questions that can be handled. But since you so much desire to inject into this canvass Indian questions with which the governor can have nothing to do, I wish to state that I am in favor of the sale of all Indian property as speedily and as quickly as it can be done under any policy that the government will adopt and take its hands out of the state. As you remember in 1902 I went upon the stump and supported the supplementary treaty of the Choctaw and

about speedy allotment, without which there could have been no statehood, at the same time assisting in striking from the rolls and defeating the effort of the application of four thousand fraudulent citizenship claimants, who sought to take from the Choctaws and Chickasaws twenty millions of dollars, and that you at the same time fought the ratification of this treaty before the Indians, and that the Cruce firm, of which you were a member, and interested, represented the larger percent of these claimants, and that I stand now opposed to the reopening
of the Indian rolls in either of the Five Tribes, whether by the Mc-Guire bill, which seeks to enroll the negroes in violation of the property rights of the Indians, or whether it would look toward the admission of the court claimants you and your as-
stand now? Do you favor reopening the rolls in any particular?
Have you changed your opinion on the supplementary treaty and do you yet hold an interest in the contracts seeking to enroll these people in violation of the property rights of these Indian Tribes?

Because of this fact and because of being the confidential adviser during that period of years to Governor Johnston of the Chickasaw Nation, I was in the course of such struggle
a citizen of the tribe that resulted
by the legal services of Mansfield, McMurray and Cornish, a firm now dissolved, you have sought by my necessary association with them, to leave the impression that I was interested in the sale of the coal lands and in the matter of Indian taxation;
if not directly, indirectly, by the statements of your managers and the tinnendo of the Daily Oklahoman, wherein it is argued that Murray is the friend of the Indians. I am a friend to the Indians, I have never engaged in graft of their lands, either in farm lands or town lots. I came to the Indian Territory not at their solicitation, but upon my own responsibility. They treated me fairly, and by reason of subsequent marriage gave me valuable property when the
the Indian Territory country. But since conditions have changed and they are now outnumbered ten to one
men; a new government is formed and theirs abolished, I shall be the last man found trying to rob them
of a single right they possess, and since conditions are reversed and they are in the minority, even for the purpose of giving me political strength, I shall not forsake them when they are right. I have protected them and their interests in the constitutional convention and the first legislature; saved them from being classed with the negroes of the state, and whether elected or defeated I shall continue to subserve their
tire period looked carefully to the interests of the laboring man and the farmer and all other weaker
hold now, that the wisest policy of an honest statesman is to protect the poor and the weak—the rich and the strong can protect themselves—and this shall be my policy whether deal-
the laborers, or any other class.

4th. With reference to the Grandfather clause, I call your attention to the fact that I was born and reared and have resided till my life in the state of Texas and in the Chickasaw Nation. The largest part of my residence in the state of Texas was in sections of the state where the negroes outnumbered the whites, and where it was an issue. My father was in the Confederate army, my uncles were there also, as commanders. I know the negroes from A to Z. When elected president of the constitutional convention, I established a "Jim Crow" box before there was any law authorizing it, the first ever be established in the state of Oklahoma. I was Speaker of the House that passed the bill creating
and school houses, and such training environments, and record ought
to disclose my position upon the question of suffrage. Which briefly stated, is that I favor denying every negro the right to vote, because the negro as a rule is licentious, immoral, and untruthful, and has little
opposed to fixing a qualification, either by wealth or education, upon the white man for the reason that the white man as a rule, is moral, honest and law abiding. The government has more to fear from the vicious voter than from the illiterate
age white man who can neither read

nor write voting to protect my property than the vote of the best educated negro in the world. The negro
coerced or purchased. The educated knave is the most dangerous man to society. How to curb intellectual cunning is one of our most serious problems. It is different with the white man. My understanding of the Grandfather clause is that its intent is to eliminate the ignorant negro voter but that it does not affect the illiterate white voter, and can not
such men on the election board and
as inspectors of election of the various counties and precincts who will enroll every white man irrespective
and any inspector anywhere who fails
would immediately dismiss. How do you stand?

As stated before, doubtless we differ on these propositions, and in the course of the "match-up" discussion our opinions will be disclosed. This is mine. What is yours. It occurs to
others. You have beyond doubt read my Altus speech. You observe that I take a strong position in favor of usury laws. Since that time you have been silent. I took a position providing for a new system of holding district courts with a view of lessening the number and at least preventing the creation of additional judges. Upon this you are silent. I took a position that the federal judges were violating their oaths and the constitution of the United States, as was done by Judge Hook in his crooked decision.

Upon this your only statement is that you have confidence in the courts of the country from the supreme
man is dishonest everywhere, even though he be on the bench. Is there not an issue here. I take the position of favoring a change in the
teacher independent to pursue such course as a citizen he should choose. Upon this you are silent. I took the position that the school and public funds of the state should
company and that they should not be deposited in any bank in which any state officer owns stock, holds an in-
bank stock, and yet upon this proposition you are silent—have I not the right to assume that since your reading my Altus speech you took a position the same as mine on the working of state convicts on public roads and other questions and yet you were
right to say here are some issues for discussion as well as the four named by you.

The Hon. P. S. Lester and Hon. H.
L. Muldrow representing myself and
Judge J. B. A. Robertson, have been notified of your acceptance and of the date upon which an itinerary will be fixed for this "match-up" discussion, and it is my fond hope that you will be on hand.

With highest sentiments of courtesy and regard, I am, believe me, my
dear sir,

Yours truly and respectfully,

ware formerly owned by the J. M.

It is also stated that the work will be rapidly pushed to completion, as fast in fact as the grading can be done and the material obtained. It is understood that the survey is completed and the permanent route established which removes all quibbling as to what points the road will touch along the proposed route.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE PICNIC TODAY

There has been a basket dinner and picnic at the county demonstration farm three miles southwest of Ada today. Many subjects relative to the farm were discussed by able speakers. There were no ball games, swings or other forms of amusements to divert the attention of the audience from the speakers, which is a mighty good plan to follow when the speeches are intended to be educational as they were today.

Not being able to get a report from the picnic before going to press, we publish the program advertised for today, adding that a good representation from the city attended and needless to say the candidates did not miss it.

Way Salves Fail to Cure Eczema.

Scientists are now agreed that the eczema germs are lodged not in the outer skin, or epidermis, but in the inner skin. Hence, a penetrating liquid is required, not an outward salve that clogs the pores.

We recommend the standard prescription Oil of Wintergreen as compounded in liquid form known as D. D. D. Prescription. A third bottle of this D. D. D. Prescription, at only 25 cents, will instantly relieve the itch. We have sold and recommended this remedy for years, and know of wonderful cures from its use. We recommend it to our patrons.

THIS CASE IS TO BE DECIDED AT THE POLLS SATURDAY.

Three Cent Fare vs. Two Cent Fare.

High Rates vs. Fair Rates.

No Regulation vs. Fair Regulation.

Railroad Amendment

vs. People's Amendment.

Remember that there are TWO amendments to the constitution pending. One is to be voted upon NEXT SATURDAY, June 11, and the other at the regular election in November.

The one next Saturday is proposed by the railroads and initiated by petitions gotten up by hired agents of the big railroads, that want the constitution changed and the Corporation Commission made powerless. The one to come up in November is proposed by the state legislature and while it gives the railroads the right to buy or sell whether they domesticate in Oklahoma or not, and enables them to have the benefit of the right of eminent domain, does not take away the powers given by the constitution to the Corporation Commission.

The November amendment does not go far enough to suit the big railroads and that is why you have not heard them telling the people anything about it.

B. F. Yoakum, of the Frisco, E. P. Ripley of the Santa Fe, and other big railroad magnates tell you that no new roads can be built in Oklahoma because the constitution prevents the big roads from buying them after they are built. This is not true. Oklahoma has built more than 260 miles of new road since statehood and is building 500 miles right now.

She was sixth state in the Union in new roads in 1909. But if it were true all the relief these men suggest would be secured by the adoption of the NOVEMBER amendment without killing the Corporation Commission by the adoption of the June amendment this week.

It is an acknowledged fact that there can be no regulation of rates or service without information about operations and financial results.

The amendment to be voted upon this week, as the railroad lawyers admit, leaves to the discretion of the railroad companies what information they shall furnish to the corporation commission.

The amendment to be voted upon this week was written by corporation lawyers in Chicago. Before any Oklahoma commercial club ever heard of it it was submitted to me and also to Governor Haskell by Henry Asp and Dorset Carter. Both the governor and myself refused to endorse it and the hiring of a few so-called Commercial club officers and the effort to deceive the public as to the authorship of the amendment began immediately and is still going on.

You can vote AGAINST the amendment next Saturday and in November vote to give the railroads all the relief they PROFESS to want.

Additional Corporation Privileges and Less People's Rights.

YOU HAVE A VOTE ON THE 11TH WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO WITH IT?

Shawnee, Okla., June 8.—Chief Charles Hawk of the city police department went to Gainesville, Tex., last night with a warrant for the arrest of two men and their supposed wives who have been passing under the names of Sherman or Shubert and Ritter or Taylor. They are now being held awaiting both Chief Hawk from here and also the officers from Oklahoma City, as a result of some quick work by the local force.

The parties now being held are wanted here and at the metropolitan city for passing "bogus" checks. There are numerous complaints at Oklahoma City, and in this city Fleming & Brown and another furniture house were handed bad checks. Their game was to enter a store, make an extensive purchase, then present a check for more than the amount of the purchase, secure the change and then take French leave.

The local officers were notified here last Saturday by the Oklahoma City police to be on the lookout for them, for they had been successful in passing several bad checks there made by Ritter in favor of Sherman and indorsed "for labor."

Island train leaving here in the morning at 4:20 o'clock. They had gone to the station early in the evening and had stayed there until the next morning, presumably to make it appear that they were going east. They went to Wichita Falls, Tex. The check passed on Fleming & Brown here was made by a W. M. Reed in favor of Shubert. Shubert is the only one wanted here, but all the others are wanted at Oklahoma City, where charges are pending against them.

EXTRACTS FROM ROOSEVELT'S OXFORD UNIVERSITY ADDRESS

Dryness is not in itself a measure of value. A book which is written to be read should be readable. This rather obvious fact seems to have been forgotten by the more zealous scientific historians.

I am willing that history shall be treated as a branch of science, but only on condition that it also remain a branch of literature.

If the homely, commonplace virtues die out, then the nation has lost what no material prosperity will offset.

To be opulent and unarmed is to secure ease in the present at the almost certain cost of disaster in the future.

In the long run there can be no justification for one race managing or controlling another unless the management and control are exercised in the interest and for the benefit of that other race.

Some of you think me a very radical democrat—as, for the matter of fact; I am; and my theory of imperialism would probably suit the anti-imperialist as little as it would suit a certain type of forcible-feeble imperialist.

BURBANK EXPERIMENT PROVES SUCCESSFUL

A Poppy and a Primrose Perfected by the Plant Wizard.

San Francisco, June 8.—Luther Burbank, the "plant wizard" of Santa Rosa announces the perfection of two flowers new to the world—a poppy and a white evening primrose.

His new creation will be extensively reproduced, he says, at a ranch recently purchased by the horticulturist at Lompoc, Santa Barbara county.

Osages Elect New Chief.

Pawhuska, Ok., June 8.—For the first time in the history of the Osage tribe of Indians of less than half-blood was elected to the office of principal chief at an election here yesterday the contest being close between the mixed-bloods and full-bloods, the latter having as their candidates a full-blood named Shuka moie, and the mixed-bloods Alf Brown, the newly elected chief.

The mixed-bloods represent the more progressive of the Osages, those who are against the old-time customs of the Osages, who are now the only Indians in Oklahoma who continue to wear their blankets, feathers and other finery of the old-time Indian.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Party of American Girls to Spend the Summer After Manner of Gypsies.

When Elizabeth, she of the German garden, spent a summer roving about England in a van she set a fashion that has been increasing in popularity summer by summer. A number of American girls are planning this method of getting back to nature this summer. One party who will spend June, July and August drifting about a certain lovely part of the country have a regular caravan, six vans or wagons and six women, with a useful young man on hire bringing up the rear in a seventh van.

When this caravan gets under way it will be difficult for the onlooker to believe that the vans are old furniture wagons newly painted. One of the members of the party is an interior decorator and she is fitting up the vans, which are hired from storage warehouses—old style vans considered by their owners to be too small to be of much use in hauling furniture, but just the right size for pleasure vans. A large van requires two horses and that would make the trip too expensive.

When the vans come from under the ministrations of the interior decorator their walls will be draped with chintz. A different pattern is to be used in each van. Grass rugs will cover the floors and wicker armchair, a wicker couch, a folding table and a large mirror hanging from the walls will make the interior very home-like. The trunks of the caravantes will serve as wardrobes and as seats when they are closed.

The useful young man's caravan will be the kitchen, the same young man preferring to sleep in a small tent. He has been instructed to "knock up" shelves on two sides of his van, whose future use will be as a resting place for pots, pans and kettles. Two kerosene stoves will stand in one end of the van, and that part of the wall not shelved will be hung with cooking utensils. Three small nursery ice boxes, a tent and a folding screen will complete the kitchen outfit. The cooking will be done in the tent when it is rainy, but on pleasant days the stoves will be transferred to the open air.

Of course, on a trip like this, much of the comfort depends on the sort of clothes worn. These caravantes plan to dress in short skirts of green or tan colored wool, with rough linen for warmer days. Each woman will carry with her a folding rubber bathtub, so she can have her morning splash in the van—that is, if the useful young man gets time to bring the water.

CRIPPLE TELEGRAPH WIRES,
BLOODY RAID.

Order Will Be Restored.

Mexico City, Mex., June 8.—With telegraph wires cut and operators murdered or forced to flee for their lives, definite information is lacking as to the present situation at Valladolid, Yucatan, the scene of a bloody massacre by Indian insurgents several days ago. Major advances received by the government authorities here today estimate the number of killed at forty.

More than 2,000 Indians are said to have been engaged in the attack upon the towns. The insurgents held Valladolid at last accounts, having freed themselves in the jail and other buildings. A force of federal and state troops and volunteers numbering more than 2,000 men was concentrating at Dzitas, a short distance from Valladolid, and was about to march upon the rebels.

Bravo Ordered to Scene.

Gen. Ignacio Bravo, commander of the tenth military zone, whose headquarters are at Santa Cruz de Bravo in the province of Quintana Roo, has been ordered to the scene and will take command.

Those engaged in the uprising are chiefly Indians of the towns of Xocen and Chichiuilla, who never have been submissive to authority. Reports as to the cause of the outbreak are conflicting. Some declare that it began with a protest against certain orders issued by the civil officer known as the "Tefe Politico" in charge of the municipality, while others say that it was the result of a drunken spree. Whatever its origin, it appears to have had some semblance of organization and is said to have been led by political malcontents. Col. Bonilla Montenegro, formerly at the head of the civil government of Valladolid, is said to have been in command of the raiders. Where First Attack Begun. The first attack was made upon the building where all public offices are located. The mob was armed with machetes, pistols and guns. After sacking this building the rioters turned their attention to the Jefe Politico named Regil.

The battle had begun in the night and it was 2 a. m. when the attack was made on the building where Regil and many citizens had taken refuge. A bloody butchery followed. The wife of Regil left her four children and went to the assistance of her husband, seeking through her tears and prayers to reach the hearts of the infuriated raiders. Regil was cut down before her eyes and his body hacked to pieces. The wife also is said to have been murdered as were all the men in the building, some twenty in all. Later the five or six gendarmes in the town met a similar fate.

People Terrified.

The people of the town were terrified. Many fled in the direction of Merida. The mob surged through the town crying for blood and pillage. Victor Ojeda, Judge of the First Instance, well into their hands and was assassinated. Other victims were Florentino Echarrela, commander of the police; Jose Marie Hernandez, second in command; Pedro Hernandez, mayor of the town; the treasurer and others.

Among others reported to have been killed is given the name of Jose E. Triay, chief of the telegraph office at Valladolid, and Alonso Villanueva and Demetrio Rivero, merchants, whose stores were also sacked.

At the war department here it was said that the troops already en route to the scene of the pillage with the local forces will be able to restore order, although additional troops were in readiness to be sent forward if it became necessary.

Ada will see the "sweet girl graduates" at the height of her glory tonight, for the graduating exercises of the East Central Normal will be held at the M. E. church. Notwithstanding the fact that the Normal began under adverse circumstances and has been hampered by a good many difficulties not easily overcome—by want of hard work, untiring efforts and hearty co-operation of students and faculty, school and town, the success of the institution has been phenomenal.

From tonight it will take its place among alma maters. Hon. M. L. Williams of Muskogee will address the graduates and Prof. Chas. W. Briles will present the diplomas. Those who have the honor of being first to receive diplomas from the East Central Normal are Orel Busby, Johnston T. Crawford, Carmer Dallas, Corinne Montague Hardin, Kate Louisa Robinson, Cora Robertson Perkins.

Clinton, Ok., June 8.—While climbing up a post on the front porch at his home yesterday afternoon, little Walter Motherway slipped and in falling struck two nails which protruded from a board. The nails cut into the flesh of the little fellow's leg to such a depth that he hung suspended in the air, while his shrieks of agony could be heard for blocks, frightening the neighbors. His sister, Gladys, happened to be near and ran to his assistance, pulling him loose from the rusty nails that held him.

The gashes in the boy's leg are two and four inches in length, and from one-half to three-fourths of an inch in depth. On account of the rusty condition of the nails the family entertains some fear that he will suffer from blood poison, although at present he is getting along nicely.

Oklahoma City, Ok., June 9.—"Every corporation, company, firm, superintendent, foreman, department head or any other person with jurisdiction over voters is hereby warned that unless on election day the men are given at least two hours in which to vote they will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law which provides a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $500, and corporation, firm or individual having under his supervision and employ voters, are warned that imprisonment may follow if complaints are made." This is the warning Chairman D. S. Levy of the county election board issued Wednesday and it will be carried out to the letter. The law is specific and voters are urged to report any violations of which they are cognizant.

CLINT WILL MEET ATT'Y. GEN. WEST

Hon. Clint Graham of Marietta, candidate for attorney general, a social and political favorite in Pontotoc county, will meet his opponent, Hon. Chas. West, the present incumbent, in joint debate in the latter's home town next Wednesday night. Since Mr. Graham goes into his opponent's home town, and presumably his stronghold for first joint debate, it would only be fair that he bring Gen. West to Ada, one Clint's numerous strongholds, for the concluding debate.

Parade Headed by Fort Sill First Field Artillery Band.

Lawton, Ok., June 8.—Mounted as if in actual war, the First Field Artillery band of Fort Sill, a musical aggregation of thirty-five pieces known all over Oklahoma for their ability led the magnificent parade of three miles in length through Lawton streets today at 11 o'clock as the leading feature of the Elks' state meeting. Next in line of march was the full three batteries of the First Field Artillery, in command of Col. Andrews, bearing a full quota of cannons and ammunition wagons in army fashion.

Besides the Fort Sill and local bands, Shawnee and Hobart were in the parade with bands. Nearly 1,000 Elks were in the line of march from Muskogee, Ardmore, Hobart, Frederick, Elk City, McAlester, El Reno, Tulsa, Guthrie, Chickasha, Mangum and Oklahoma City and Lawton. Many decorated floats and autos and carriages were in the procession. The Hobart delegation which came over today in cars, were present with thirteen autos.

Washington, June 7.—President Taft today nominated William D. Crum of South Carolina, minister resident and consul general at Montevideo, Liberia. Crum is the negro whose appointment by Mr. Roosevelt as collector of the port at Charleston, S. C., raised such a storm of protest in the south.

Miss Edinia Richardson, who attended the E. C. N. returned to her home in St. Louis this morning.

The recital at the High school building last night given by the Fine Arts Department of the East Central Normal showed a magnificent triumph in the Fine Arts by the students. The auditorium was filled to its utmost capacity and from the time the first number was presented the audience was ready to pronounce it the greatest success in the series of commencement exercises so far given. The music was superb, the costumes unique and historically correct, the readings, in fact, everything on the program reached the highest excellence and each number never once failed to bring its round of enthusiastic applause.

Monterey, Mex., June 8.—Without offering any defense Francisco I. Madero, candidate for the presidency of the republic, who was arrested Monday night, stood before Judge Trevino today and listened to the court declare him a "formal" prisoner. Subsequently he stated that he had refused the privilege of defense on the ground that he has no faith in justice at this time.

Judge Trevino gave as a reason for his action in holding Madero that the deposition of Madero justified him in ordering him held incommunicado. The newspapers of this city are commenting freely upon the arrest and imprisonment of Madero, the opposition press condemning the action as the authorities and the government papers praising their activity in punishing what they insist is a grave offense.

Madero was arrested as he, with his wife, was boarding a train to leave the city. He was charged with having assisted or aided Rouque Estrada, a prominent anti-re-electionist to escape the service of a warrant for an offense which he is alleged to have committed last Sunday, the nature of which was not revealed. Estrada gave himself up yesterday to the authorities.

Tishomingo Is There With Her Band Boasting for Hon. W. H. Murray.

Sulphur, Ok., June 8.—Oklahoma City, Shawnee and Guthrie were represented here in joint debate today by E. J. Giddings, Fred Rellly and Horace Speed, respectively. Mr. Giddings took the position that the people of the state have the right to locate their state capital at any time, and Shawnee and Guthrie contended that the state was bound not to remove the capital until 1913.

The advantages of Oklahoma City for the capital were given in detail by Mr. Giddings. About 3,000 people were in attendance and it was a gala day for Sulphur. Gov. Haskell and state and county candidates will speak here tomorrow, including Ross Herring and advocates of Cruce and Murray and of other candidates. Tishomingo is here with her band, boosting for Bill Murray.

Some Questions to
Mr. Cruce.

Hon. Lee Cruce, Ardmore, Okla.

Dear Sir:—I have read your favor-
named.

unfairness of them I shall be glad,
fair, with but one limitation; that is,
arms.

sacality of an oath, as disclosed by the records of the constitutional convention and the first legislature. But
ed:

1st. As to the Torrens Land Regis-
dian Territory grafters who have
of unloading upon some new comer to our state desiring to buy a home,
these grafters attempted by mental
Amendment to U. S. constitution.

2. As to the taxing of Indian lands
showing that I had paid all taxes up-

to that decision. But, my dear Mr.
the state.

tution no bonds can be issued in excess of four hundred thousand

stitution, because in Sec. 2, Art. 23,
form adopted at Tulsa September,
committee on platform was R. W.
I ask you if your brother, A. C.
oppose the purchase of the deposits.
be confined to citizens of Oklahoma.
ernment may take its hand of carpetism out of the state. And, as

stamp and supported the supplemen-
Quire bill, which seeks to enroll the
Indian tribes?

and in the water of Indian taxation;
innuendo of the Daily Oklahoman,
the laborers, or any other class.

4th. With reference to the Grand-
ers. I know the negroes from A to
Z. When elected president of the
est and law abiding. The government has more to fear from the illiterate

negro is the most dangerous man to
you stand?

As stated before, doubtless we differ on these propositions, and in the
al judges. Upon this you are silent.
I took a position that the fed-

named by you.

The Hon. P. S. Lester and Hon. H.
L. Muldrow representing myself and
you will be on hand.

dear sir,

Yours truly and respectfully,
WM. H. MURRAY.

There has been a basket dinner and picnic at the county demonstration farm three miles southwest of Ada today. Many subjects relative to the farm were discussed by able speakers. There were no ball games, swings or other forms of amusements to divert the attention of the audience from the speakers, which is a mighty good plan to follow when the speeches are intended to be educational as they were today.

Not being able to get a report from the picnic before going to press, we publish the program advertised for today, adding that a good representation from the city attended and needless to say the candidates did not miss it.

Industry and Finance

Are dependent on each other. The industrious man attracts money as a magnet attracts iron. E. C. N. CLOSES SCHOOL YEAR MAGNIFICENT AUDIENCE WITNESSES GRADUATING EXERCISES; AN INSPIRING OCCASION.

MUSIC, BEAUTY AND ORATORY

Judge M. L. Williams of Muskogee Delivers Graduating Address; President Briles Delights Audience; Diplomas Presented.

The program of the graduating exercises of the E. C. N. was rendered as published in Thursday's News.

The musical program furnished by the music department of the college and directed by Misses Anderson and Case was par-excellent and appreciated by the magnificent audience who filled the auditorium to the utmost.

The "Jewel Song" by Miss Gertrude Thompson, graduate of vocal music, was beautiful, and when President Briles in ornate and appropriate language presented this popular home young lady her diploma there could not have been felt but general approval.

The Honorable M. L. Williams of Muskogee delivered the address of graduation, which was strong and well received.

When Judge Williams had concluded, President Briles, as is his custom, when occasion exacts him to speak at all, delivered a magnificent little address after which he presented the diplomas.

President Briles' Address in Part in Substance.

Today marks the close of another school year. During the months and days of this year and the former years of your college career you have been striving to store your mind with facts of useful knowledge, that you might be prepared to meet and assist in the solution of the problems of the life of the world in the society of which you find yourself a part. Learning is supreme and you are its champions. This institution is the place where men are made. The fruitage of its endeavor must be manhood, scholarship, character—or its existence becomes a mockery.

You stand today as the exemplars of the law of the survivor of the fittest. "Hoists by great men reached and kept were not attained by sudden flight," but they, while their companions slept, were toiling upward in the night. Many of your former classmates, on account of the difficulties of the problems which confronted them in their college career, every line of human endeavor with-in the new State of Oklahoma is the marvel of the ages. In Oklahoma we have ceased to subscribe to the statement that "we think the same thoughts that our fathers have thought, and do the same things that our fathers have done." We are thinking different thoughts and doing things in a manner so different to the established customs of the older states that the world is beginning to wonder at the remarkable progress of the young giant of the

Young ladies, young gentlemen, you have started in life with bright prospects. Ours is an age of letters, and instead of a few rescripts of an ecclesiastical lore found hidden in the dusty archives of the old Roman church, and delegated only to the chosen clergy the advantage of learning are tendered to all classes. But there is no excellence without great labor. Sebeca said, "Men by doing nothing learn to do mischief."

"An idle brain is the devil's workshop." A busy man is never a criminal.

Young man, young woman, build higher. Be not content with things low and groveling. Mount up with wings as eagles, and when the storms of life gather, and the thunders roar, and the lightnings flash swifter than the flight of Phobos' car, soar above the raging tempest of life's failure, and enjoy full measured success. When the Mohammedan prays, he turns his face toward Mecca, when the Jew prays, he turns his face toward Jerusalem, when the Christian youth prays for inspiration he turns his eyes to the hills and follows the footsteps of Clay, Webster, Johnson, Lincoln and Garfield, who came up from poverty, want and privation Great country this.

Our schools, our colleges, our universities, our churches, our institutions, our laws insure to all alike opportunities for success. We are upon a common level—the high and the low, the rich and the poor. There is no blue blood, long line of lineage, or royal families to stand in the way of your promotion. Energy and courage and pluck and labor, constitute our capital, and up from the shops, the factories, the furnaces, the fields and the forest, without money, without friends, except as they make for themselves, by their own brain, their own will, have come our great captains of industry.

Finally young ladies and young gentlemen let me say to you that the State of Oklahoma needs your service, and will look to you as leaders in directing the affairs in all departments of life's work. It is yours to assist in the dissemination of truth and the abolition of ignorance. Ignorance is ignorant of its own ignorance. It is the blind Sampson who destroys the temple and all. It is the wild furor of the multitude, crying of its best friend, crucify him, crucify him, give us Barabaz. It has enslaved in the name of freedom, killed its best prophets in the name of progress, persecuted and tortured in the name of the Prince of Peace.

have fallen by the wayside. The world is calling today for men who know, and for men who will do. The man who in the face of difficulties and obstacles is willing to endure the hardships and press on to success and victory.

We are living in an age of progress, and in a land of unprecedented opportunity. The progress made in West Our educational system, though by no means perfect in all its details, is considered by the best authorities to be the best working system of any of the state systems. In our school system we have departed from the notion that the culture of the world can be gotten nowhere save in the classics of the ancient Greeks and Romans, and instead we believe and teach that there is as great cultural value in the study of a rock as there is in a Greek root. The Savior replied to the tempter, "Thou shalt not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." By this statement it is implied that there must be some bread. Our state has realized the importance of providing a system of education that will prepare the youth; both to live and to make a living.

Life has its responsibilities and its duties, and as the years come and go driving us like driftwood farther from the innocent sports of childhood, it becomes more a reality. Little thought Enoch Arden, Katie Lee, and Philip Gray, as they played among the lumber and waste of the seashore, that ever there should come to them the sad realities that life in the wake of their childish pleasures. What but a youthful dream of the most beautiful phantasmagoria could paint the pleasures that flitted through the mind of Maud Muller as she stood and watched the receding form of the Judge as he rode away, and wished that she his bride might be? But it was only the hope of a youthful dream soon to be shattered.

Longfellow by hard and persistent labor has been styled the Poet of Amos. During the long and dreary winter as ever thicker, thicker, frost lay on lake and river, and even deeper, deeper fell the snow on all the land, he was coining his earnest thoughts into the beautiful poems of Hiawatha and Evangeline, and when he was called hence, all Cambridge was draped in mourning, and the world did him honor. In contradistinction to Longfellow there is another to whom we refer with mingled feelings of pleasure and pain, the consummate genius of the south who spent his life in dissipation and died in poverty—who even in a drunken stupor dreamed dreams no mortal ever dared dream before, and in that vision saw, "A ghastly, grim and ancient raven from Night's Plutonian shore." And the soul of Edgar Allen Poe from the shadow of the ebony bird that lies

POSTAL SAVINGS PASSES HOUSE

ALL REPUBLICANS AND TWENTY-SIX DEMOCRATS VOTED FOR POPULAR MEASURE.

THE SALIENT FEATURES

Every President from Grant Down Recommended Passage of This or Similar Law.

Washington, June 9.—By a vote of 195 to 101 the House at 3 o'clock tonight passed the postal savings bank bill. Every republican, including all of the insurgents, and twenty-six democrats voted for the adoption of the bill.

Only One Texan Favorable.

Representative R. L. Henry, the only Texas member who voted for the adoption of the bill, reflects the views of the democrats who voted for the measure in the following statement made to correspondents on the passage of the bill.

"By passing this bill," said Representative Henry, "we establish the postal savings bank for the benefit of the people and the generation. I am for the legislation, and in obedience to the demand of the Democratic platform and in accordance with my pledges to my constituency I voted for the postal savings bank bill. It may have imperfections, and I think it has, but we can amend it as defects become apparent through experience."

Finley's Substitute Lost.

On conclusion of the eight hours of debate the house voted on a motion by Representative Finley of South Carolina, the ranking democrat on the postoffice committee, to substitute his draft of a postal savings bank bill for the pending measure. This was lost by a strict party vote of 113 to 196, except that Representative Norris of Nebraska, an insurgent republican, voted for the Democratic substitute.

Then followed the motion by Representative Weeks of Massachusetts, chairman of the House Committee on Postoffice and Post Roads, to substitute the house bill for the senate bill, and on this roll twenty-four of the twenty-six democrats who subsequently voted for the adoption of the bill, cast their votes in favor of the substitution. Six insurgent republicans, Messrs. Gronna of North Dakota, Hubbard of Iowa, Lenroot of Wisconsin, Nelson of Wisconsin, Norris of Nebraska and Woods of Iowa, voted with a majority of the democrats against substituting the house for the senate bill.

The next roll call was on the motion of representative Moon of Tennessee to recommit the bill, which was voted down by 187 to 118, and then came the roll call on the final passage of the bill.

The bill will go to the senate tomorrow, where it is thought likely that body will accept the house measure thus avoiding sending it to conference.

Concludes Chapter of Interest.

The passage of the postal savings bank bill tonight concludes one of the most interesting chapters in the history of legislation. Such a bill was recommended by every President of the United States in a message to congress, from President Grant down to every attempt at its enactment was defeated either in one branch or the other of congress. It was only through the new arousing of public interest in such affairs of legislation within recent years that public sentiment sufficiently asserted itself to compel an unwilling congress to establish this institution.

The democratic position in this matter was unique. In the senate democrats based their opposition to the bill mainly on its alleged unconstitutionality. But in the house tonight the democrats admitted its constitutionality, as well as its necessity, when they voted for the Finley draft of a postal savings bank bill.

DALLAS MAN HEADS CONSUMPTION WAR

Oklahoma City Selected as Probable Place of Meeting for New Organization.

St. Louis, Mo., June 9.—Dr. William Brumby of Dallas, Texas, was elected president of the Southwestern Conference on Tuberculosis, organized here yesterday by delegates from twelve southwestern states. Oklahoma City was selected as the probable place for the next annual meeting. A donation of $1,000 to the Missouri society by the Anheuser Brewing association of St. Louis was announced at the conference. One of the principal purposes of the new southwestern association is to devise a system for caring for the influx of consumptives from the north into the southwest. The association's promoters announced that they did not propose to discourage the immigration of consumptives.

Order Will Be Restored.

Mexico City, Mex., June 8.—With telegraph wires cut and operators murdered or forced to flee for their lives, definite information is lacking as to the present situation at Valladolid, Yucatan, the scene of a bloody massacre by Indian insurgents several days ago. Major advances received by the government authorities here today estimate the number of killed at forty.

More than 2,000 Indians are said to have been engaged in the attack upon the towns. The insurgents held Valladolid at last accounts, having fortified themselves in the jail and other buildings. A force of federal and state troops and volunteers numbering more than 2,000 men was concentrating at Dzitaa, a short distance from Valladolid, and was about to march upon the rebels.

Bravo Ordered to Scene.

Gen. Ignacio Bravo, commander of the tenth military zone, whose headquarters are at Santa Cruz de Bravo in the province of Quintana Roo, has been ordered to the scene and will take command.

Those engaged in the uprising are chiefly Indians of the towns of Xocen and Chichiuilla, who never have been submissive to authority. Reports as to the cause of the outbreak are conflicting. Some declare that it began with a protest against certain orders issued by the civil officer known as the "Tefe Politico" in charge of the municipality, while others say that it was the result of a drunken spree. Whatever its origin, it appears to have had some semblance of organization and is said to have been led by political malcontents. Col. Bonilla Montenegro, formerly at the head of the civil government of Valladolid, is said to have

The first attack was made upon the building where all public offices are located. The mob was armed with machetes, pistols and guns. After sacking this building the rioters turned their attention to the Jefe Politico named Regil.

The battle had begun in the night and it was 2 a. m. when the attack was made on the building where Regil and many citizens had taken refuge. A bloody butchery followed. The wife of Regil left her four children and went to the assistance of her husband, seeking through her tears and prayers to reach the hearts of the infuriated raiders. Regil was cut down before her eyes and his body hacked to pieces. The wife also is said to have been murdered as were all the men in the building, some twenty in all. Later the five or six gendarmes in the town met a similar fate.

People Terrified.

The people of the town were terrified. Many fled in the direction of Merida. The mob surged through the town crying for blood and pillage. Victor Ojeda, Judge of the First Instance, well into their hands and was assassinated. Other victims were Florentino Echarrela, commander of the police; Jose Marie Hernandez, second in command; Pedro Hernandez, mayor of the town; the treasurer and others.

Among others reported to have been killed is given the name of Jose E. Triay, chief of the telegraph office at Valladolid, and Alonso Villanueva and Demetrio Rivero, merchants, whose stores were also sacked.

It is said that Triay, chief of the telegraph office, was put to death after suffering horrible torture. Other operators fled to the country and escaped the mob.

At the war department here it was said that the troops already en route to the scene of the pillage with the local forces will be able to restore order, although additional troops were in readiness to be sent forward if it became necessary.

Clinton, Ok., June 8.—While climbing up a post on the front porch at his home yesterday afternoon, little Walter Motherway slipped and in falling struck two nails which protruded from a board. The nails cut into the flesh of the little fellow's leg to such a depth that he hung suspended in the air, while his shrieks of agony could be heard for blocks, frightening the neighbors. His sister, Gladys, happened to be near and ran to his assistance, pulling him loose from the rusty nails that held him.

The gashes in the boy's leg are two and four inches in length, and from one-half to three-fourths of an inch in depth. On account of the rusty condition of the nails the family entertains some fear that he will suffer from blood poison, although at present he is getting along nicely.

This is the warning Chairman D. S. Levy of the county election board issued Wednesday and it will be carried out to the letter. The law is specific and voters are urged to report any violations of which they are cognizant.

Hon. Clint Graham of Marietta, candidate for attorney general, a social and political favorite in Pontotoc county, will meet his opponent, Hon. Chas. LAWTON SEES 1000 ELKS

Parade Headed by Fort Sill First Field Artillery Band.

Lawton, Ok., June 8.—Mounted as if in actual war, the First Field Artillery band of Fort Sill, a musical aggregation of thirty-five pieces known all over Oklahoma for their ability led the magnificent parade of three miles in length through Lawton streets today at 11 o'clock as the leading feature of the Elks' state meeting. Next in line of march was the full three batteries of the First Field Artillery, in command of Col. Andrews, bearing a full quota of cannons and ammunition wagons in army fashion.

Besides the Fort Sill and local bands, Shawnee and Hobart were in the parade with bands. Nearly 1,000 Elks were in the line of march from Muskogee, Ardmore, Hobart, Frederick, Elk City, McAlester, El Reno, Tulsa, Guthrie, Chickasha, Mangum and Oklahoma City and Lawton. Many decorated floats and automobiles were in the procession. The Hobart delegation which came over today in cars, were present with thirteen autos.

The recital at the High school building last night given by the Fine Arts Department of the East Central Normal showed a magnificent triumph in the Fine Arts by the students. The auditorium was filled to its utmost capacity and from the time the first number was presented the audience was ready to pronounce it the greatest success in the series of commencement exercises so far given. The music was superb, the costumes unique and historically correct, the readings, in fact, everything on the program reached the highest excellence and each number never once failed to bring its round of enthusiastic applause.

Monterey, Mex., June 8.—Without offering any defense Francisco I. Madero, candidate for the presidency of the republic, who was arrested Monday night, stood before Judge Trevino today and listened to the court declare him a "formal" prisoner. Subsequently he stated that he had refused the privilege of defense on the ground that he has no faith in justice at this time.

Judge Trevino gave as a reason for his action in holding Madero that the deposition of Madero justified him in ordering him held incommunicado. The newspapers of this city are commenting freely upon the arrest and imprisonment of Madero, the opposition press condemning the action as the authorities and the government papers praising their activity in punishing what they insist is a grave offense.

Madero was arrested as he, with his wife, was boarding a train to leave the city. He was charged with having assisted or aided Roque Estrada, a prominent anti-re-electionist to escape the service of a warrant for an offense which he is alleged to have committed last Sunday, the nature of which was not revealed. Estrada gave himself up yesterday to the authorities.

The advantages of Oklahoma City for the capital were given in detail by Mr. Giddings. About 3,000 people were in attendance and it was a gala day for Sulphur. Gov. Haskell and state and county candidates will speak here tomorrow, including Ross Herring and advocates of Cruce and Murray and of other candidates. HON. WM. H. MURRAY TO HON. LEE CRUCE

AL OF HIS PRINCIPAL CON-TESTANT FOR GUBERNA-

Mr. Murray Very Positive in Position
Land System—Tropounds
Some Questions to
Mr. Cruce.

Hon. Lee Cruce, Ardmore, Okla.

Dear Sir:—I have read your favor of the 3rd inst., accepting my pro-
son and Cpl. L. P. Ross as the same
named.

ted both because there is no evi-
sloughing votes from some other candidate. I had information prior to
dently that was why he singled me

unfairness of them I shall be glad,
fair, with but one limitation; that is,
arms.

Clause," so-called, Taxation of In-
sacred oath of an oath, as disclosed by
on each of the four questions named:

1st. As to the Torrens Land Regis-
sand land suits in the federal courts.
man. How can you bankrupt the state
Amendment to U. S. constitution.

2. As to the taxing of Indian lands
I have to state that I was in the leg-
urer of Johnston county, Oklahoma,
showing that I had paid all taxes up-

to that decision. But, my dear Mr.
the state.

issue in this campaign for the reason that under the enabling act this
chase can not be made by the state,
Sec. 6, Art. 11), and no other funds can be used, since under the constitution again no bonds can be issued

stitution, because in Sec. 2, Art. 23,
form adopted at Tulsa September,
committee on platform was R. W.
I ask you if your brother, A. C.
oppose the purchase of the deposits.
be confined to citizens of Oklahoma.
sells the surface no man in Oklahoma will scarcely have an opportunity
ernment may take its hand of carpet-bagging out of the state. And, as

stump and supported the supplementary treaty of the Choctaw and
Indian Tribes?

by the legal services of Mansfield,
and in the matter of Indian taxation;
immundo of the Daily Oklahoman,
when they are right. I have protect-
classes, holding, as I held them, and
the laborers, or any other class.

4th. With reference to the Grandfather clause, I call your attention
was in the Confederate army, my
ers. I know the negroes from A to
Z. When elected president of the constitutional convention, I estab-
ever established in the state of Oklahoma. I was Speaker of the
the white man for the reason that the white man as a rule, is moral, honest and law abiding. The govern-

elected governor I shall permit only such men on the election board and as inspectors of election of the various counties and precincts who will
and any inspector anywhere who falls
you stand?

al judges. Upon this you are silent.
I took a position that the federal judges were violating their

named by you.

The Hon. P. S. Lester and Hon. H.
L. Muldrow representing myself and
you will be on hand.
dear sir,

Yours truly and respectfully,
WM. H. MURRAY.

MOUNTAIN VALLEY ROAD

Makes Announcement—Will Begin Work at Guthrie July 1.

Guthrie, May 3.—The announcement is made, and seemingly from the best of authority that work is to begin on the Guthrie end of the Mountain Valley and Plains railroad by July 1. It is also stated that the work will be rapidly pushed to completion, as fast in fact as the grading can be done and the material obtained. It is understood that the survey is completed and the permanent route established which removes all quibbling as to what points the road will touch along the proposed route.

Geo. Frierson, Jr.

There has been a basket dinner and picnic at the county demonstration farm three miles southwest of Ada today. Many subjects relative to the farm were discussed by able speakers. There were no ball games, swings or other forms of amusements to divert the attention of the audience from the speakers, which is a mighty good plan to follow when the speeches are intended to be educational as they were today.

Not being able to get a report from the picnic before going to press, we publish the program advertised for today, adding that a good representation from the city attended and needless to say the candidates did not miss it.

Why Salves Fail to Cure Eczema.

We recommend to all eczema patients the standard prescription Oil of Wintergreen as compounded in liquid form known as D. D. D. Prescription. A third bottle of this D. D. D. Prescription, at only 25 cents, will instantly relieve the itch. We have sold and recommended this remedy for years, and know of wonderful cures from its use. We recommend it to our patrons.

THE PROSPEROUS MAN

Judge Hook vs. Oklahoma. Three Cent Fare vs. Two Cent Fare. High Rates vs. Fair Rates. No Regulation vs. Fair Regulation. Railroad Amendment vs. People's Amendment.

Remember that there are TWO amendments to the constitution pending. One is to be voted upon NEXT SATURDAY, June 11, and the other at the regular election in November. The one next Saturday is proposed by the railroads and initiated by petitions gotten up by hired agents of the big railroads, that want the constitution changed and the Corporation Commission made powerless. The one to come up in November is proposed by the state legislature and while it gives the railroads the right to buy or sell whether they domesticate in Oklahoma or not, and enables them to have the benefit of the right of eminent domain, does not take away the powers given by the constitution to the Corporation Commission.

The November amendment does not go far enough to suit the big railroads and that is why you have not heard them telling the people anything about it.

B. F. Yoakum, of the Frisco, E. P. Ripley of the Santa Fe, and other big railroad magnates tell you that no new roads can be built in Oklahoma because the constitution prevents the big roads from buying them after they are built. This is not true. Oklahoma has built more than 250 miles of new road since statehood and is building 500 miles right now. She was sixth state in the Union in new roads in 1909. But if it were true all the relief these men suggest would be secured by the adoption of the NOVEMBER amendment without killing the Corporation Commission by the adoption of the June amendment this week.

The amendment to be voted upon this week was written by corporation lawyers in Chicago. Before any Oklahoma commercial club ever heard of it it was submitted to me and also to Governor Haskell by Henry Asp and Dorset Carter. Both the governor and myself refused to endorse it and the hiring of a few so-called Commercial club officers and the effort to deceive the public as to the authorship of the amendment began immediately and is still going on.

YOU HAVE A VOTE ON THE 11TH WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO WITH IT?

J. E. LOVE, Chairman Corporation Commission.

Shawnee, Okla., June 8.—Chief Charles Hawk of the city police department went to Gainesville, Tex., last night with a warrant for the arrest of two men and their supposed wives who have been passing under the names of Sherman or Shubert and Ritter or Taylor. They are now being held awaiting both Chief Hawk from here and also the officers from Oklahoma City, as a result of some quick work by the local force.

The parties now being held are wanted here and at the metropolitan city for passing "bogus" checks. There are numerous complaints at Oklahoma City, and in this city Fleming & Brown and another furniture house were handed bad checks. Their game was to enter a store, make an extensive purchase, then present a check for more than the amount of the purchase, secure the change and then take French leave.

Island train leaving here in the morning at 4:20 o'clock. They had gone to the station early in the evening and had stayed there until the next morning, presumably to make it appear that they were going east. They went to Wichita Falls, Tex. The check passed on Fleming & Brown here was made by a W. M. Reed in favor of Shubert. Shubert is the only one wanted here, but all the others are wanted at Oklahoma City, where charges are pending against them.

Dryness is not in itself a measure of value. A book which is written to be read should be readable. This rather obvious fact seems to have been forgotten by the more zealous scientific historians.

San Francisco, June 8.—Luther Burbank, the "plant wizard" of Santa Rosa announces the perfection of two flowers new to the world—a poppy and a white evening primrose. His new creation will be extensively reproduced, he says, at a ranch recently purchased by the horticulturist at Lompoc, Santa Barbara county.

Pawhuska, Ok., June 8.—For the first time in the history of the Osage tribe of Indians of less than half-blood was elected to the office of principal chief at an election here yesterday the contest being close between the mixed-bloods and full-bloods, the latter having as their candidates a full-blood named Shuka moie, and the mixed-bloods Alf Brown, the newly elected chief. The mixed-bloods represent the more progressive of the Osages, those who are against the old-time customs of the Osages, who are now the only Indians in Oklahoma who continue to wear their blankets, feathers and other finery of the old-time Indian.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up outcrop of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Party of American Girls to Spend the Summer After Dinner of Gipsies.

When Elizabeth, she of the German garden, spent a summer roving about England in a van she set a fashion that has been increasing in popularity summer by summer. A number of American girls are planning this method of getting back to nature this summer. One party who will spend June, July and August drifting about a certain lovely part of the country have a regular caravan, six vans or wagons and six women, with a useful young man on hire bringing up the rear in a seventh van.

RAILWAY LINE SOLD TO THE TEXAS COMPANY

Tulsa, Ok., June 8.—The West Tulsa Belt Line Railway Company today passed into the control of the Texas company, which is building an immense refinery in West Tulsa and has heavy oil and pipe line interests here. In the election of officers J. S. Cullinan, president of Texas company, was elected president; J. E. Crosbie, vice president; W. L. Stewart of the Texas company, secretary. These men, with F. B. Dillard and F. Dodge, compose the board of directors. The West Tulsa Belt Line Railway Company will build a line extending from the Texas Company's station in the Midland Valley to Lost City on the Frisco, a distance of eight miles. It is understood that the line will be under way shortly.
